What is It

Think About This!

Our forefathers already had their literature, which reflected in their customs and traditions. They had their alphabet even before they had colonized. The Spanish friars burned their alphabet in the belief that they were works of the devil or were written on materials that quickly perished, like the barks of trees, dried leaves, and bamboo cylinders, which could not have remained firm even if efforts were made to preserve them. Our unique geographic location is the reason why we are rich.

PRE-Spanish Literature - is characterized by:

- Folk tales. These are made up of stories about life, adventure, love, horror, and humor where one can derive lessons. An example of this is THE MOON AND THE SUN.

- The Epic Age. Epics are long narrative poems in which a series of heroic achievements or events, usually of a hero, are dealt with at length.

- Folk Songs. These are one of the oldest forms of Philippine literature that emerged in the pre-Spanish period. These songs mirrored the early forms of culture. Many of these have 12 syllables. Examples of which are Kundiman, Kumintang o Tagumpay, Ang Dalit o Imno, Ang Oyayi o Hele, Diana, Soliraning and Talindaw
Understanding Literary History

Literature in this period may be classified as religious prose and poetry and secular prose and poetry.

- Spanish Influences On Philippine Literature
  The first Filipino alphabet, called ALIBATA, was replaced by the Roman alphabet. Also, the teaching of the Christian Doctrine became the basis of religious practices. European legends and traditions brought here became assimilated in our songs, corridos, and moro-moros.

- Folk Songs
  It manifests the artistic feelings of the Filipinos and shows their innate appreciation for and love of beauty. The examples are Leron-Leron Sinta, Pamulinawen, Dandansoy, Sarong Banggi, and Atin Cu Pung Sing-sing.

- Recreational Plays
  There were many recreational plays performed by Filipinos during the Spanish times. Almost all of them were in a poetic form such Cenaculo, Panunuluyan, Salubong and Zarzuela.

PERIOD OF ENLIGHTENMENT (1972- 1898)

In 19th Century, Filipino intellectuals educated in Europe called Ilustrados began to write about the hitch of colonization.

The Propaganda Movement (1872-1896) - This movement was spearheaded mostly by the intellectual middle-class like Jose Rizal, Marcelo del Pilar; Graciano Lopez Jaena, Antonio Luna, Mariano Ponce, Jose Ma. Panganiban, and Pedro Paterno.

  o Some of Rizal’s writings: Noli Me Tangere, Mi Ultimo Adios, Sobre La Indolencia Delos Filipinos and Filipinas Dentro De Cien Años.

  o Some of Del Pilar’s writings: Pagibig sa Tinubuang Lupa (Love of Country), Kaingat Kayo (Be Careful), and Dasalan at Tocsohan (Prayers and Jokes).

  o Some of Jaena’s writings: Ang Fray Botod, La Hija Del Fraile (The Child of the Friar), and Everything Is Hambug (Everything is mere show), Sa mga Filipino...1891, and Talumpating Pagunita Kay Kolumbus (An Oration to Commemorate Columbus).
THE AMERICAN REGIME (1898-1944)

Linguistically, Americans influenced Filipino writers to write using English language. Jose Garcia Villa became famous for his free verse.

Characteristics of Literature during this period:

The languages used in writing were Spanish and Tagalog and the dialects of the different regions. But the writers in Tagalog, continued in their lamentations on the conditions of the country and their attempts to arouse love for one’s native tongue and the writers in English imitated the themes and methods of the Americans.

THE JAPANESE PERIOD (1941-1945)

Philippine Literature was interrupted in its development when another foreign country, Japan, conquered the Philippines between 1941-1945. Philippine literature in English came to a halt. This led to all newspapers not to be circulated in the community except for TRIBUNE and PHILIPPINE REVIEW.

- Filipino Poetry during this period

  The common theme of most poems during the Japanese occupation was nationalism, country, love, and life in the barrios, faith, religion, and the arts.

- Three types of poems emerged during this period:

  a. Haiku, a poem of free verse that the Japanese like. It was made up of 17 syllables divided into three lines and

  b. Tanaga – like the Haiku, is short, but it had measure and rhyme.

  c. Karaniwang Anyo (Usual Form)

PHILIPPINE LITERATURE IN ENGLISH (1941-1945)

Because of the strict prohibitions imposed by the Japanese in the writing and publishing of works in English, Philippine literature in English experienced a dark period. For the first twenty years, many books were published both in Filipino and in English.

In the New Filipino Literature, Philippine literature in Tagalog was revived during this period. Most themes in the writings dealt with Japanese brutalities, the poverty of life under the Japanese government, and the brave guerilla exploits.
PERIOD OF ACTIVISM (1970-1972)

According to Pociano Pineda, youth activism in 1970-72 was due to domestic and worldwide causes. Because of the ills of society, the youth moved to seek reforms.

The Literary Revolution

The youth became vocal with their sentiments. They demanded a change in the government. It was manifested in the bloody demonstrations and the sidewalk expressions and also in literature.

PERIOD OF THE NEW SOCIETY (1972-1980)

News on economic progress, discipline, culture, tourism, and the like were favored more than the sensationalized reporting of killings, rape, and robberies. Filipinos before were hooked in reading magazines and comics.

After ten years of military rule and some changes in the life of the Filipino, which started under the New Society, Martial Rule was at last lifted on January 2, 1981. The Philippines became a new nation, and this, former President Marcos called “The New Republic of the Philippines.” Poems during this period of the Third Republic were romantic and revolutionary. Many Filipino songs dealt with themes that were true-to-life like those of grief, poverty, aspirations for freedom, love of God, of country and fellowmen.

POST-EDSA 1 REVOLUTION (1986-1995)

History took another twist. Once more, the Filipino people regained their independence, which they lost twenty years ago. In four days from February 21-25, 1986, the so-called People Power (Lakas ng Bayan) prevailed. In the short span of the existence of the real Republic of the Philippines, several changes already became evident. It was noticed in the new Filipino songs, newspapers, speeches, and even in the television programs. The now crony newspapers that enjoyed an overnight increase in circulation were THE INQUIRER, MALAYA, and the PEOPLE’S JOURNAL.
21st CENTURY PERIOD

The new trends have been used and introduced to meet the needs and tastes of the new generation. 21st Century learners are demanded to be ICT inclined to compete with the style and format of writing as well. New codes or lingos are used to add flavor in the literary pieces produced nowadays.

THE SUN AND THE MOON

(Tingguian folk tale)

In the olden days, like the moon, the sun had also star children which were yellowish in color, very bright and very hot.

The star children of the moon, however, were reddish and cool. That moon was scared that his stars would wither and die if they play with the star children of the sun.

The moon suggested to the sun that they kill their children who were crowding the heavens with their number.

When the sun had killed her children, the moon merely hid behind the clouds.

In the evening, when the clouds faded, the moon stars appeared.

This angered the sun so he gave chase to the moon. Thus, when he overtakes the moon, we have the so-called eclipse.

Every morning, the sun kills the moon stars that he catches.

Until now, this chase continues and because the moon still continues...

Lesson 2

Identifying Representative Texts from the Regions

The country’s rich repertoire of literary masterpieces may be rooted in the diverse cultural heritage of the Filipino people. They have produced varied texts because of differences. The mighty roar of the North and the fiery temperament of the South blended well. The Filipinos speak of the collective experiences from the people who have gone through difficulties, triumphs, struggles, successes, armed conflicts, bloodless revolutions, and others. It is the reason why these masterpieces resonated loud and clear in the Philippine archipelago.

A Taste of Philippine Poetry

Located in the northwest of Luzon, the Ilocos Region or Region 1 is comprised of four provinces, namely: Ilocos Norte, Ilocos Sur, La Union, and Pangasinan. It is bordered to the west by the turbulent South China Sea, to the east by the Cordillera Administrative Region, the northeast and southeast by Cagayan Valley and the South by Central Luzon. Most of the inhabitants of the Ilocano homeland are concentrated along a narrow coastal plain. Because of geographical boundaries, these people often experience heavy rains and violent typhoons, especially during rainy seasons.
The region, then, takes pride in long stretches of white sand and clear waters alongside its rich cultural heritage. What you are about to read is a poem written by a Carlos Palanca Memorial Awardee in Poetry in 1964, Carlos A. Angeles. His collection of poems entitled, Stun of Jewels, also bagged him the Republic Cultural Heritage Award in Literature in the same year.

A Moment of Silence

Gabu depicts a coastline in Ilocos that is constantly experiencing the battering restlessness of the sea. The water that comes back to the shore seems furious and ruthless with its daylong bashing, which havocs the wasteland. Being an archipelagic country, the Philippines knows the importance of water and the sea.

A Taste of Tagalog Essay

More popularly known now as the CALABARZON referring to the provinces of Cavite, Laguna, Batangas, Rizal, and Quezon, Region IV-A is home to Tagalog-speaking people in the Philippines. Recognized all over the country for their bravery and fearlessness in battles, CALABARZON has participated actively in the country’s fight for freedom and democracy. It is home to many Philippine heroes foremost, and among them are Rizal of Laguna, Mabini of Batangas, and Aguinaldo of Cavite.

A Taste of Creative Nonfiction

The island of Visayas is one of the major geographical divisions in the Philippines, the other two being Luzon and Mindanao. It is divided into Western, Central, and Eastern Visayas. The Visayas region is comprised of several islands circling the Visayan Sea. Its people, therefore, share a sea-based culture and tradition that may be rooted in a strong religious foundation.

The dwelling place of many festivals such as the Ati-Atihan, Di-nagyang, Sinulog, Pintados, and Maskara, the Visayas may indeed be considered as one of the cradles of Philippine civilization.

Salubungin ang (Bagong) Daluyong ng mga Agos sa Disyerto

SA PANAHONG tila natutuyuan ang mga linang ng panitikan noong gitnang bahagi ng dekada '60, dumaloy ang mga akda nina Efren R. Abueg, Dominador B. Mirasol, Rogelio L. Ordoñez, Edgardo M. Reyes at Rogelio R. Sikat, sa aklat katipunang Mga Agos sa Disyerto.

Huling sargo ng daluyong ng Agos ay 16 na taon ang nakararaan, nang lumabas ang ikat-long edisyon nito noong 1993.

Ngayon, sa panahong sampu isang pera ang patakbuhang literaturang patuloy na lumuluoy sa diwa at kaluluwa ng mga Pilipino, muling nagbabanta ang pagbugso ng mga Agos sa Disyerto.

1. In what language was the text, Maga Agos sa Disyerto written?
2. What did the text aim to accomplish?

1. What is the central theme of this text?

Pananalamin sa Tubig ng Katotohanang Panlipunan
Sinalamin ng 25 akdang isinama sa Agos (na 20 lamang noong ika-2 edisyon) katotohanang umiiral sa lipunan. Binigyang mukha ng mga ito ang kalagayan ng karaniwang tao, maging ang pingkian ng kapangyarihan at karumaldumal na karalitaan at kawa-langhiyaang umiiral sa ating lipunan.

Nilaro ng mga akda ang emosyon at kaisipan, na bagaman ginagawa na noon, hindi ganoong kahantad.
